

CROCHET NEWBORN BABY HAT

This hat is designed to fit an average newborn head, and although baby heads may vary in size, there is extra length at the bottom of the hat to fold up. The hat should stretch depending on the yarn you use.

Since these hats will be donated and not made for a specific boy or girl, neutral colors, such as beige, white, mint, yellow, etc. are suggested. A few pink or blue are alright, but the majority of hats need to be the suggested colors.
